

Armstrong World Industries' Hilliard Plant Named One of Ohio's Best Workplaces for 2024

Armstrong World Industries, Inc., a leader in the design, innovation and manufacture of ceiling and wall solutions, proudly announces that its Hilliard, Ohio plant has been recognized as one of the Best Workplaces in Ohio by Ohio Business Magazine.

The plant was commended for its vibrant culture, employee engagement efforts, progressive job promotion system, comprehensive training programs, career development opportunities and the array of engagement activities organized for their team.

The plant's achievements will be highlighted in Ohio Business Magazine's summer issue, alongside other recipients of the 2024 Best Workplaces in Ohio awards.

Established in 1987, the Hilliard plant has 174 employees dedicated to quality and excellence. The plant manufactures a variety of mineral fiber ceiling products for use in commercial buildings across North America.

Alongside the Hilliard facility, Armstrong World Industries also operates manufacturing plants in Johnstown and Newark, Ohio.
